TRANSPORTATION

Uber and Lyft work very well in Miami and are a lot more affordable than taxis. We recommend taking either of those services to and from the airport. Please keep in mind that due to the increase of demand they might be surging. A network of complimentary shuttle buses will run round-trip service between Art Miami, CONTEXT, Aqua Art Miami and Art Basel Miami Beach.

WHERE TO STAY

Please note that hotels get very busy during this time of the year, we recommend you book as soon as possible. We have included the websites of some hotels we recommend, however if you need further help, don't hesitate in contacting us.

MIAMI BEACH

Known for its party scene and sandy beaches, Miami Beach is the place to stay at during Art Week as Basel is very close and there are plenty of things to do.

WHERE TO EAT

MIAMI BEACH

Pao by Paul Qui | Faena Hotel 3201 Collins Ave | 844-798-9713 | www.faena.com/miami-beach

Pao is known for serving up a mix of Filipino, Japanese, and Texas barbecue cuisine, in a see-and-be-seen setting.

27 Restaurant | 2727 Indian Creek Dr | 305-531-2727 | www.freehandhotels.com/miami/27-restaurant

27 Restaurant pays homage to Miami's diversity with an eclectic menu filled with signature dishes from South America, the Caribbean, and even the Middle East, in a laid-back spirit.

Lucali | 1930 Bay Rd | 305-695-4441 | www.lucali.com

This New York City import has been a hit since the day it opened its doors.

Byblos | 1545 Collins Ave | 305-508-5041 | www.byblosmiami.com

Arguably one of the most stunning restaurants in town, its Mediterranean dishes have a Middle Eastern and Northern African slant

Upland Miami | 49 Collins Ave | 305-602-9998 | www.uplandmiami.com

An offshoot of the popular New York City restaurant, it features an approachable menu filled with dishes inspired by California.

BRICKELL AREA

Zuma | 270 Biscayne Boulevard Way | 305-577-0277 | www.zumarestaurant.com

Modern Japanese cuisine with a scene-chaser clientele. Its London and Hong Kong siblings made the Top 100 listing of the S.Pellegrino World's Best Restaurants.

Lung Yai Thai Tapas | 1731 SW 8th St | 786-334-6262 | www.lungyaitapas.com

This small, unassuming Little Havana spot has been perpetually packed since its debut, featuring a menu filled with duck salad, curries, and some of the best fried chicken around – just be prepared to wait, since reservations aren't accepted. Hands down best Thai spot in town.

La Mar by Gaston Acurio | 500 Brickell Key Dr | 305-913-8288 | www.mandarinoriental.com

La mar offers a combo of well-executed upscale novo-Andean fare and Asian-Peruvian fusion dishes, with the most spectacular views in town.

Quinto la Huella | 788 Brickell Plaza | 786-805-4646 | www.quintolahuella.com

The Uruguayan import keeps an original and simple menu, with a strong focus on grilling. The food is delicious, but their outdoor siting and ambiance makes this place a most.
